

Web Site Critique'

You will find a web site that contains information about a particular subject ( to be given on Monday ). You will write a one page summary about that web site.

Include items such as:

An overview of the site.

Your opinion of the site ( both content and design of the site )

Specific facts from the site that you learned.

This is to be HANDWRITTEN .. You are to use complete sentences, correct grammar and good form..

They are due at the BEGINNING ( when you enter the room ) of class every FRIDAY !!

Weekly Subject - History of Computers

Name
Date
Per:

Web Site - <http://www.aol.members.comphistory.html>

This site lists the development of computers from 1958 - 1977

It has lousy graphics - but it has some great information about
The history of computers..

I learned that in 1986, MICROSOFT began selling stock and sold
61 million dollars worth on the first day.

Etc.
